SPECIALIZED SLED

With drills on the Rogers Three Read Machine, your players get the game-day advantage by reacting fast to movement and shooting the hands quickly. Repetitions help players become proficient in using forearms and hands to maintain separation - critical to making plays.

THREE READ FACTS

- > The Three Read Machine eliminates the need for two live players in the drill.
- > Has a 15" range of height adjustment to best match the size of your players.
- > Teach your defensive players to quickly take on blocks coming from different angles.
- > You trigger the down block from either side, or the "on" or "drive" from a head-up player.

POWER. SKILL. VICTORY.
